

The Gold Award

The Chief Scout's Gold Award is the highest award in the Scout Section...

To earn the Gold Award, Scouts need to complete each of the Challenge Awards

World Challenge Award

Skills Challenge Award

Outdoors Challenge Award

Adventure Challenge Award

Teamwork Challenge Award

Personal Challenge Award

Team Leader Challenge Award

Creative Challenge Award

Expedition Challenge Award

Plus, any Six Activity Badges (including Staged Badges)

Beta Help Available for Scout Leaders...

New programme resources have been added to the Scout website to help leaders support more Scouts to achieve the top award for their section: The Chief Scout's Gold Award.

So why not take some time out to browse the new materials to help you meet the requirements for every Challenge Award and Activity Badge for Scouts.

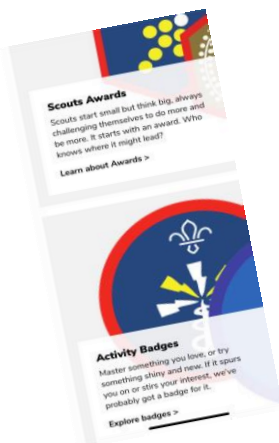

1

Click here to launch the Beta web page for the Scout Section

2

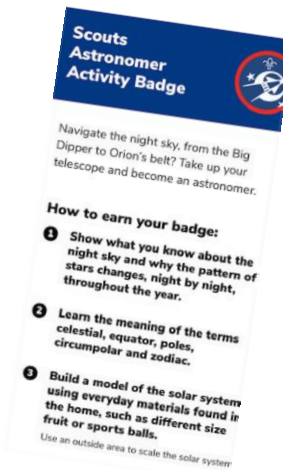

Click on either the Awards or Activity Badges headings to find out more.

Then click on the image of the award or badge that you want to check the requirements for. Choose from one of the nine Challenge Awards or 69 Activity and Staged Activity Badges for Scouts.

3

When you have selected your award or badge, the requirements will be listed, and you can print the page to use as a guide at your meetings.

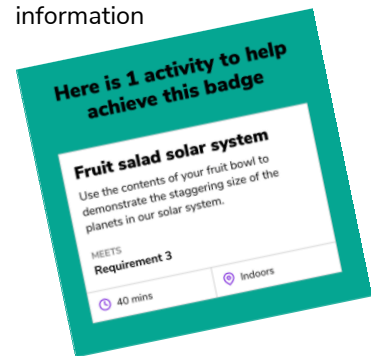

4

Now you have updated yourself on the options for gaining the badge or award you explore the activities that are listed to help you plan a programme around the badge of your choice.

5

At the bottom of the page you will find a range of activities that link to the badge or award requirements that you can print, and this includes the materials you need, information of how to run the activity and even how long the activity will take to do.

Beta is Better...

Thought about youth leadership?

Could a young leader head up an activity badge or challenge award as part of their Young Leader Missions?

