

The Platinum and Diamond Awards

The Chief Platinum Award for Explorers and Chief Scouts Diamond Award for Explorers and Network members...

Top Awards for Explorers and Network members

The Platinum Award

The Diamond Award

The Queen's Scout Award

Coming soon...
Look for PoP no:29.

New programme resources have been added to the Scout website to help leaders support more Explorers and Networkers to achieve two of the top awards for their sections: The Chief Scout's Platinum and Diamond Awards.

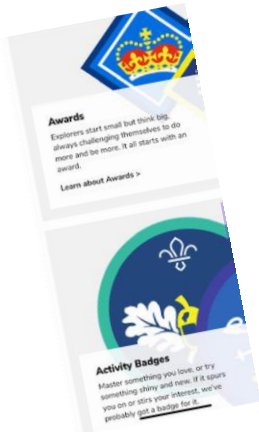

So why not take some time out to browse the new BETA site to help with the requirements for both these Top Awards and also Activity Badges for Explorers.

1

Click here to launch the Beta web pages for the Explorers.

2

Click on either the Awards or Activity Badges headings to find out more.

Then click on the image of the award or badge that you want to check the requirements for. Choose from one of the Top Awards or 35 Activity and Staged Activity Badges for Explorers.

3

When you have selected your award or badge, the requirements will be listed, and you can print the page to use as a guide at your meetings.

5

The Diamond Award

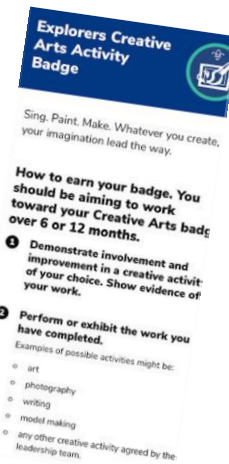

To gain this award Explorers and/or Network members:

- Must be a member of Explorers or Network for at least 12 months.
- Complete 12 nights away (eight must be camping).
- Complete four activities from the ICV List. See PoP no:8 (May'19).
- Take up a skill for three months and a physical activity for six months OR Take up a physical activity for three months and a skill for six months.
- Provide service to an individual or community for six months (this can include Young Leader service).
- Complete a two-night, three-day expedition.

Remember...

Always check the full award criteria on the Scout website. This site also gives details of how these awards are adapted for Explorers and Networkers completing awards within the Duke of Edinburgh scheme.

Queen's Scout Award...
PoP no: 29 - coming soon

4

The Platinum Award

To gain this award Explorers:

- Must be a member of Explorers for at least six months.
- Complete six nights away (four must be camping).
- Complete two activities from the ICV List. See PoP no:8 (May'19).
- Take up a skill for three months.
- Take up a physical activity for three months.
- Provide service to an individual or community for three months (this can include Young Leader service).
- Complete a one-night, two-day expedition.

