Chief Scout's Bronze Award

This is the highest award a Beaver can earn. To earn it, you'll need complete all of the challenge awards, as well as any four activity badges of your choice (including staged activity badges).

How to earn your badge:

1. Complete all the challenge awards.

They are:

My World Challenge Award

My Skills Challenge Award

My Outdoors Challenge Award

My Adventure Challenge Award

Teamwork Challenge Award

Personal Challenge Award

2. Do any four activity badges or staged activity badges.

Explore the Beavers Activity/Staged Badges

Top tips:

If you haven't finished your badges and challenges, you can carry on and complete them in your first term as a Cub Scout.

When you become a Cub, you can wear the Chief Scout's Bronze Award on your uniform until you earn your Chief Scout's Silver Award.

Requirements can be adapted to suit each young persons abilities, speak to your young persons leader or see our guidance on flexibility.

Beavers My World Challenge Award

You don't have to travel far and wide to learn about how the world works. Discover a range of exciting cultures and traditions, right on your doorstep.

How to earn your badge:

1. Learn about what makes up your local community and meet someone who serves your community such as a police officer, lifeboat crew, a coastguard, fire fighter, youth worker or nurse.
2. Complete an activity to help people in your local community.
  - This could be carol singing at a local care home, repairing paths at a nature reserve or helping to clear a garden for someone with a disability.
3. Take part in at least one activity that reflects England, Northern Ireland, Scotland, Wales, or your part of the UK.
  - These could be: dance and music, craft, festivals, food, sports and activities.
4. Find out about, and take part in, an act of worship, reflection or celebration.
5. Discuss your Beaver Promise to do your best and how your Promise can help remind you to do good things in your community.
6. Do at least one activity to help you learn about the natural world around you.
  - These could be: pond dipping, mini-beast hunting, growing something from seed, leaf printing, or something similar agreed with your leader.
7. Take part in an activity from another country.
  - You could learn your Promise in another language, make a dish from another country or create some artwork inspired by another country.

Beavers My Skills Challenge Award

Your body and mind are the most precious instruments you'll ever own. Get the cogs whirring and move your feet! It's time to develop some new skills.

Beavers Personal Challenge Award

Everyone finds different things easy or tricky. Choose two personal challenges you'd love to accomplish and dive right in.

How to earn your badge:

1. Complete two personal challenges which you and your leader agree on.

You should choose one of the challenges and your leader will choose the other.

The challenges should be things that you find difficult but can complete with some effort and commitment. They can be to do with any part of your life, for example home, school or Beavers.

Here are some example challenges to help you think about what you could do. You don't have to pick a challenge from this list, you should choose to do something which is personal to you.

- Look after a new Beaver for half a term
- Talk about a topic you are interested in with an adult you don't know very well
- Bring your scarf to Beavers every week for a term
- Remember to brush your teeth twice a day for two weeks
- Show good behaviour at Beavers for 3 weeks in a row
- Try something new that you are a bit nervous about
- Go to a District fun day and talk to some other Beavers you don't know
- Try all of the food on Beaver sleepover
- Remember to feed your pet every morning for a week
